

SIGA Indigenous Artist Development Bursary

The SCMA would like to invite all SCMA indigenous members to apply for the SIGA Indigenous Artist Development Bursary. The recipient will receive a cash award of $1500 to be presented at the Annual Saskatchewan Country Music Awards on Saturday April 18 in Regina, SK.

SIGA Indigenous Artist Development Bursary (Chosen by the SCMA Board Of Directors)

Description – This bursary has been created in partnership with SIGA to further the development of indigenous country music artists in Saskatchewan.

Please fill out the information completely and email to scma@scma.sk.ca. The deadline for the application is midnight on Saturday February 8, 2020

Name: _____ Band Name: _____

Band members: _____

SCMA Chapter Affiliation: _____

SCMA Membership #: _____

1. Please tell us what projects you are working on and when they will be complete.

-
-
-
-
-

2. If chosen the recipient of this bursary, what are your plans for this funding (i.e. vocal coaching, recording, music lessons, etc.)

-
-
-

NOTE: To be eligible for this bursary, all applicants, individuals or groups, must all hold current individual SCMA memberships.

Please return via email to scma@scma.sk.ca by February 8, 2020